

Oxstones Investment Club™ The New Silk Road

牛石

We are a new medium to discuss both traditional and alternative investing opportunities i.e. emerging and frontier markets, commodities, hedge funds, private equity, and real estate.

We seek to exchange ideas and local market information about finance, macroeconomics, geopolitics, and businesses from the ground level in order to gain insights into great investment opportunities in foreign economies

Our Vision for this website is to reach individual investors globally and to enlighten, to empower and to evolve together as investors. We hope to create a transparent and open environment and to harness the power of collective intelligence in our global community to become better investors by sharing ideas and learning from each other.

Each contributor has a link to share their posts at <http://oxstones.com/author/yourusername>

Our Mission: To Enlighten, To Empower, and To Evolve as Investors.

To educate both the young and old – To enlighten and empower them with the tools and knowledge to evolve into better investors capable of managing their personal finances and retirement savings. Our virtual investment club will be focused on traditional and alternative investing asset classes, global investment opportunities, sharing ideas, and learning together in an interactive investing community.

The changing world order will continue to create dramatic volatility and uncertainty in our lifetime, but it will also present incredible rewards. In the Chinese language, ‘Crisis’ also means ‘Opportunity.’
